Detailed Action

Applicant's arguments filed 7/2/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. See discussion below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-6 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hunt on record. Hunt teaches the pyrrolotriazine where Y is absent; R1 = H; X = -NR11C=O-; R2, R3 = Me; ZR5 = NH; R4 = substituted phenyl; R13 = alkyl and R11 = H or alkyl. Hunt's pyrrolotriazine compound is equivalent to instant compound where R1 = H; R2, R3 = methyl; X = -NR10C=O-; R10 = H or alkyl; ZR5 = NH; and R4 = substituted phenyl. Hunt teaches that pyrrolotriazine compounds of his invention can be used in methods of treating cancer, psoriasis, arthritis, inflammation, autoimmune disease, and diabetic retinopathy. See column 6 line – column 7 line 10. These are conditions associated with p38 kinase activity as indicated in instant claims 7-8. Hunt does not exemplify methods of treating said conditions with his compound described above. However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have employed the compound described in methods of treating said conditions. One would have been motivated to do this since Hunt states that his invention is based on the discovery that certain pyrrolotriazines are inhibitors of protein kinases. See column 6 lines 44-45.

With respect specifically to claims 2 and 4-6, Hunt suggests the method of using compounds where  $X\text{-}R2 = N\text{-}R11CO\text{-}alkyl$  or  $-\text{C}(=\text{O})\text{NR19}$ ;  $Y = \text{absent}$ ;  $R3 = \text{substituted alkyl}$ ;  $R5,R1 = H$ ;  $R6 = H, \text{alkyl}$ ;  $Z = N$ ;  $R4 = \text{ureido substituted aryl, carbamyl sulfonamide or sulfonamide substituted aryl}$ . This compound is the instant compound where  $X\text{-}R2 = N\text{-}R10CO\text{-}alkyl$  or  $-\text{C}(=\text{O})\text{NR10}$  ( $R2a,R10 = H$ );  $R3 = Me$  or trifluoro methyl;  $R1,R5 = H$ ;  $R6 = H, \text{alkyl}$ ;  $Y = SO_2NH$  (sulfonamide). Note,  $Y$  can still be defined as " $-\text{NHSO}_2-$ " which is the same as " $-\text{SO}_2\text{NH}-$ " which has been deleted from the definition of  $Y$  in amendment filed 1/17/07. Hunt does not exemplify a method of treating said conditions using this compound. However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have employed the compound in methods of treating said conditions. One would have been motivated to do this since Hunt states that his invention is based on the discovery that certain pyrrolotriazines are inhibitors of protein kinases. See column 6 lines 44-45.

Response to Applicant's arguments

Applicant has amended claims to remove psoriasis, atherosclerosis, diabetes, arthritis and rheumatoid arthritis from the claims in an effort to avoid the 103(a) rejection over Hunt. However it is also important to note that both the Hunt specification and instant claims recite that types of arthritis, inflammatory bowel disease and osteoporosis can be treated by the administration of instant compounds. Since these conditions plus other related conditions remain in the claims the 103(a) rejection over Hunt is maintained. See column 9 lines 33,47-48,59 of the Hunt reference.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

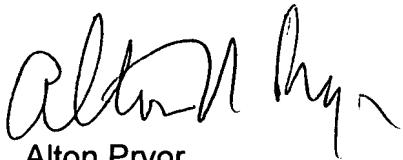

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
